

ACS CineKids Application 2017/18 National ABN 24 000 379 368

A cinematographer is a person with the technical expertise to manipulate light and capture visual information by the use of a camera and optical lens into aesthetic moving images.

The Australian Cinematographers Society (ACS) was formed in 1958 for the purpose of providing a forum for cinematographers to further develop their skills through mutual cooperation.

An ACS CineKids member is a person 15 years or younger who has a passion for cameras and filmmaking.
